Day 1: The Delight Swakopmund Gondwana Collection Namibia, Swakopmund (Wed, 12 June)

In 1892, eight years after South West Africa was declared a German Protectorate, Swakopmund was founded with the intention to build a harbour. By 1907 a little town pulsating with life had emerged from the desert! Swakopmund boasted the largest European population of all the German colonies in Africa. Decades on and much bigger now, the charming town is as alluring as ever. The mix of Namibian influences with picturesque buildings from the colonial era, palm-lined streets and seaside promenades, the laid-back holiday atmosphere plus the cool sea breeze make Swakopmund one of the most attractive places in the country.

Despite the turquoise waters of the Atlantic Ocean on its doorstep and the Namib Desert as its backyard, Swakopmund is not a tropical sunbathing paradise, however. The moderate climate along the coast is due to the cold Benguela Current. The current also causes the nightly fogs for which the town is famous and which sustain the wealth of desert flora and fauna near the coast. Early mornings and the evenings can be chilly throughout the year – a welcome respite from the inland heat.

Swakopmund has become the country's adventure mecca. The desert, the dunes and the ocean lend themselves to a host of thrilling activities: sandboarding, sand skiing, quad biking, dune carting, beach angling and deep sea fishing, to name but a few, and not to forget parachuting.

There is no shortage of diverse shops, bistros and restaurants. Small specialist shops sell hand-made leather work, art & crafts, hand-woven carpets and wall hangings, hand-embroidered bed and table linen and other items proudly made in Namibia. Superb jewellery, designed and crafted with local gemstones by master goldsmiths, are another special feature of Swakopmund.

Activities other than fun in the sand and the sea: visit the art galleries and buy contemporary Namibian art and crafts; visit the museum to learn about Swakopmund's history; join a tour of Karakulia Weavers and watch karakul wool being spun and woven into wall hangings and rugs; admire the world's largest quartz crystal cluster and other mineral treasures at the Kristall Galerie.

Guests will witness breathtaking views of flamingos, salt pans, the desert and the lagoon. ### Catamaran Charters

The chances of encountering dolphins, whales, turtles, seals and Mola Mola (sunfish) make the search for the marine big 5 and adventurous tour by enjoying sparkling wine, fresh oysters and other mouth-watering snacks aboard the spacious and comfortable catamarans.

Pelican Point Kayaking

Our Pelican Point Kayaking tour gives our guests the opportunity to kayak amongst our permanent seal colony at the tip of the Pelican Point Peninsula about 35 km outside of Walvis Bay. We regularly encounter dolphins and - in season between July and November - even whales.

The tour starts at 7h45 (from 01 September until 30 April) or 8h30 (from 01 May until 31 August) at the Walvis Bay Waterfront. We take our clients in our 4x4 vehicle on a scenic drive along the Walvis Bay Lagoon and the salt mines to Pelican Point. We stop along the way to take pictures of our our countless flamingoes, pelicans, large flocks of cormorants and great variety of other birds and wildlife.

After a safety briefing on how to use the equipment and our local conditions, we kayak for app. 90 minutes amongst our seal solony on the protected side of the Pelican Point Peninsula.

Our kayaks are molded plastic sit-inside double or single kayaks. They are very stable and suitable for inexperienced paddlers too.

After coffee, tea, rolls and cookies, we head back to Walvis Bay.

The balance of payment is payable 60 days prior to travel.

In an effort to allow you to make payments as effectively and easily as possible, we offer these payment options;

Bank Deposit / EFT: You will be provided with our Namibian bank account details and can then make a payment directly into our account. Please note that international transfers can be slow, so this is not suitable for last minute bookings, and exchange rate fluctuations & bank charges often result in unexpected expenses and top up payments being required before travelling.

1. Cancellation Policy

Cancellations will only be effective upon written acknowledgement from the Gondwana Travel Centre that notice of cancellation has been received.

It may happen that certain suppliers apply more stringent cancellation policies or deposit requirements. The client is ultimately liable to pay such higher deposit and/or cancellation fee levied by a supplier on their booking, notwithstanding the below. The following cancellation fees (as a percentage of the fully quoted price) are applicable to any cancelled travel:

The airfare quoted is based on the lowest class of fare available at the time of quoting and is subject to seats being available in that class at the time of booking.

Should the class not be available at the time of booking, the next applicable fare will be booked, and amended costs advised accordingly.

Please note that fares may increase between the time of booking, time of payment, and the ticket being issued.

The Gondwana Travel Centre cannot be held responsible should airlines discontinue flights on certain routings or change scheduled timetables resulting in missed connections etc. Should an amendment in a routing or itinerary be necessary, we will requote you accordingly.

To comply with international insurance requirements, all airline tickets must clearly show the passenger's title, full name and surname (as indicated in your passport). As this applies to both scheduled and charter flights, it is useful if this information is provided to us as soon as possible.

GONDWANA GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Travel Insurance

All clients of Gondwana (includes Gondwana Travel Centre, Gondwana DMC, Namibia2Go) are strongly advised to ensure that they are adequately covered for unforeseen incidents including but not limited to personal accident, medical and emergency travel expenses, loss/theft, personal liability, cancellation and curtailment cover, etc.

Cross-Border Travel, Visas and Passports

It is the responsibility of the client to ensure that any and all documentation required for entry into and exit from Namibia and any other relevant destinations are valid and in place.

This includes but is not limited to passports, visas and any health certificates that may be required.

Some neighbouring countries do also require visas, vehicle insurance, road-use taxes and other regulatory fees to be paid in US Dollar (USD). Please ensure that you have adequate funds available for this purpose during your trip.

Our consultants are able to advise you on some of these requirements, however Gondwana does not accept liability for any losses or damage arising as a result of your reliance on this information.

The client remains solely responsible for obtaining the relevant and updated information in this regard.

Dietary Requirements

Most dietary requirements can be catered for. It is advised that the client communicates any such specific dietary requirements at the time of booking or as soon as possible thereafter in order to ensure these can be met.

The vast landscapes and remote destinations of Namibia not only offer the traveller much to admire, but do also present a challenge in procuring special dietary needs at short notice. For this reason, food orders are made well in advance.

Booking Confirmation

It remains the responsibility of the client to ensure that the information presented on the booking confirmation is correct/valid and to notify Gondwana or the relevant agent/operator of any errors or changes in booking details.

Cancellation Policy (General)

Cancellation policies may vary across Gondwana based on the specific nature of the product/service offered. It may happen that certain suppliers apply more stringent cancellation policies or deposit requirements. This information will generally be provided by the booking consultant and clients are advised to familiarize themselves with the cancellation policy applicable to the specific product/services booked. The client is ultimately liable to pay such higher deposit and/or cancellation fee levied by a supplier on their booking.

Fluctuations in Exchange Rate

Please take note that our trading currency is the Namibian Dollar (NAD). The client bears the liability for any fluctuations in the exchange rate and should this result in a shortfall on the deposit or a shortfall in the balance of the quoted products/services, the client will be required to make payment of such shortfall.

Refunds

Refunds are processed and paid in our trading currency. Any fluctuations in the exchange rate or bank charges levied on the refund payment will be at the client's sole risk and liability.

Please note further that the Bank of Namibia requires certain documents to be presented to their satisfaction before a foreign account refund can be processed and paid. Unfortunately, we have little control over this process other than ensuring, with your cooperation, that these requirements are met for this process.

Terms and Conditions Specific to Product/Service Booked

Please note that these General Terms and Conditions shall be read together/in conjunction with each of the Product-/Service Specific Terms and Conditions related to a product/service booked for the purposes of the bookings made by the client using our products or services.

Certain Product-/Service Specific Terms and Conditions can, however, not be applied to another product/service to which it does not relate. (i.e., Namibia2Go specific terms and conditions cannot be applied to Gondwana Collection products)

Where suppliers are used to provide a specific product/service, the terms of use of that supplier shall be communicated to the client and shall apply as necessary to the relevant booking transaction in question.

Data Protection and Information Sharing
